

And the Winners Are...

With almost 40 chili entries, there was some seriously delicious competition at the GHS 6th Annual Chili Cookoff & Silent Auction! We had more staff and student entries than ever before, and the variety of chilis made for some tough decisions for tasters. First-Place prizes were given in each of three categories – Staff, Student and Community, as well as one overall Grand Prize.

First Place in the Community category went to Eric Quintana for his spicy and smoky pork green chili that feature roasted pork and three types of chilis, served with crisp tortilla chips.

First Place in the Student category was awarded to Freshman, Kyle Ludford for his Layered Chili which included a rich, meaty chili served over macaroni with an assortment of toppings including kidney beans, cheese, diced onion and oyster crackers.

Capturing First Place in the Staff category and winning the overall Grand Prize of an assigned parking spot right in front of the school were Cristian Polo and Gabriela Morales with their tomatillo green chili that was the winner in last year's Green Chili category.

Thank you to all our cooks for braving the snow to participate this year. Congratulations to the winning cooks, who have earned bragging rights for the coming year!
